

Prof. Madhulekha Bhattacharya holds M.B.B.S., M.D. and PG Certificate Course in Health & Family Welfare Management is currently working as Professor & Head, Department of Community Health Administration. She is the recipient of Award of Excellence for Geospatial Usage (2005), Women Achievers Award (2004), Dr. D.C. Dutta prize (2003), Dr. CMS Siddhu award for best/prizes paper (1986), Best NSS officer (1996-97), Dr. S.M Marwah Award (1987), Gold Medal' for standing first in Annual competition (1970). She authored many books namely Women & HIV; Horns of Dilemma AIDS; Health & Family Welfare Development in India: Critique and Future directions; Integrated Guidelines on HIV/AIDS/STD/Behavioural Surveillance; Practical Manual on Community Medicine and National Report on Annual Sentinel Surveillance for HIV Infection each year from 2000 to 2005. Prof. Bhattacharya contributed about 75 research papers and published in national and international journals. She also presented more than 50 papers at Conferences/ Seminars/Symposium in India & Abroad. Fields of Interest for Consultancy and Research of Prof Bhattacharaya are- Primary Health Care, Implementation & Capacity Building; HIV/AIDS Control Programme particularly Surveillance &Monitoring; Reproductive and Child Health programme; Estimation and projections for HIV/AIDS and Epidemiological Management of Communicable diseases.

ContactNos.	EPBX: 91 11 26166441, 2615959, 26107773, 26105743 - Ext. No- 349
Direct/Fax	91 9873555041 Fax:.91 11 26101623
Email	bhattacharya_madhulekha@yahoo.com