National Training of Trainers – 2 for Measles Catchup Campaign Phase – II (25th -26th August, 2011)

Background

Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, GoI decided to include the second dose of Measles Containing Vaccine at the age of 16-24 months in the National Immunization Schedule. In states and UTs with less than 80% coverage of fully immunized children at age 12 months, catch up rounds were planned in phased manner to immunize all children below 10 years of age with one dose of measles vaccine irrespective of previous immunization status. In 2010-11, during the first phase, 13 states and 45 districts were covered.

This phase itself is divided into two sub-phases A and B. Group A contains states and districts going in for campaigns in October – December 2011 and Group B had states and districts going in for campaigns after January 2012.

Overview

Two batches of National Training of Trainers were planned in August 2011 at NIHF, New Delhi in which all the 14 state teams will be trained. They will in turn train the district training teams who will further train the vaccinators and other staff in the districts.

In the first TOT, conducted on 5th-6th August 2011, state training teams from Assam, Meghalaya, Manipur, Arunachal Pradesh, Tripura, Nagaland, Madhya Pradesh and Rajasthan were trained. These states were going for campaigns before November 2011. The second TOT was planned to train teams from the remaining six states – Gujarat, Bihar, Uttar Pradesh, Haryana, Chhattisgarh and Jharkhand. Nominations were invited for five participants from each state. The participants would preferably be the State Program manager (SEPIO), faculty members from SIHF/ Medical Colleges / HFWTC/RHFWC, etc., for purposes of monitoring the quality of trainings in the districts.

Objective of the Workshop

At the end of the training, participants will be able to

- Act as resource persons for state level (and district level) trainings
- Guide District program managers to initiate micro-planning process
- Train District (and Block) level trainers for training of ANM & ASHA/AWW/Volunteers in conducting measles catch-up campaign sessions
- Train District level trainers for training of MOs in AEFI reporting and management
- Monitor quality of district and (if needed) sub-district level trainings

Training Methodology

The state training teams had the SEPIOs and others who were more or less trained in Phase 1 and also had practical experience of a measles campaign. Therefore, the focus was to get the involvement of the participants through discussions on points of the presentations and also experience sharing. Short presentations were followed with discussions and experience-sharing. There were exercises, group works and discussions followed by presentations to liven up monotonous sessions on formats, microplanning and preparation of communication plans.

Conclusion

The training was attended by training teams from all six states. Dr M Bhattacharya welcomed the participants on behalf of Dr Deoki Nandan, Director, NIHFV. Dr Ajay Khera, DC (Child Health & Immunization) shared his views regarding the Measles campaigns held last year. Dr Hamid Jafari, Project Manager, WHO-NPSU stressed upon the areas of special concern. Dr Satish Gupta, Health Specialist (UNICEF) said a few words on behalf of Dr Henri van den Hombergh, Chief of Health, UNICEF – India. This was followed by the sessions as per agenda. Dr Deoki Nandan met with the participants later before the tea session and shared views with them. Dr Haldar took sessions on the strategic and operational aspects of the campaign and the lessons learnt from the last campaign phase. At the end of the TOT, all presentations and training material were given in CDs to each state. The states were asked to prepare and share the plans for the state level or regional level trainings.

Participants expressed confidence of being able to further train the district training teams and monitor the direct training of the vaccinators and medical doctors in the field.
